Meet the Gnarly Team

Meet the Troop Team

The troop is actually run by its Youth leaders. With the guidance of the Troop coordinator and his assistants, they plan the program, conduct troop meetings, and provide leadership among their peers. Many Troops will modify the requirements of Troop leadership positions to fit the size of their Troop and other individual Troop needs. With the above problems in mind, we decided to expand the requirements in a way that more clearly spells out what a Troop has to do during his/ her tenure of the position, in order for the Troop coordinator to happily sign off the "Troop position" requirement in his book.

The road, where politics and hypocrisy is not the culture but compassion and cooperation is. Welcome to the never before seen amalgamation of the strange, the familiar, the known, the unknown, the dreams, the aspirations, the change, the vision, the inspiration.
